

Storytelling

To tell a story, the participant must develop skills in listening, thinking and speaking. This contest also allows for the development of creative expression, something being given more attention in the professional world. For practice, teachers can use stories from any good children's books or magazines.

Section 1474: STORYTELLING

(a) THE CONTEST.

- (1) Summary. To tell a story, the participant should develop skills in listening, thinking and speaking. This contest also allows for the development of creative expression. For practice, teachers can use stories from any good children's books or magazines.
- (2) Contest Format. Contestants shall listen to a storyteller read a brief story (between 600 and 1100 words long) only once, and then retell that story in their own words before a judge or judges. Contestants shall not use costumes or props in the contest. No materials or notes may be used during the presentation. There is no minimum or maximum time limit for the presentation. Contestants may not receive prompting of the story plot or details. Audiences are permitted to hear contestants tell their stories.

(b) REPRESENTATION.

- (1) Contestants. Students in officially prescribed grade levels below 9th grade who are eligible under Section 1400 or 1405 may enter this contest.
- (2) Divisions. Districts shall offer either a separate division for each participating grade level or combined grade level divisions as specified in official contest procedures.
- (3) Individual Competition. Each participant school may enter as many as three contestants per division in the district meet.
- (4) Team Competition. There is no team competition in this contest.

(c) CONTEST ADMINISTRATION.

- (1) Personnel. The contest director may be the coach of a participating student. If the contest director is not the coach of a participating student, the contest director may serve as the storyteller or may appoint a qualified person to act in this capacity. Responsibilities of the storyteller are as specified in official contest procedures. The storyteller may not be the coach of a participating student. Contest officials should select one judge or an odd-numbered panel of judges for each section.

- Judges shall not be coaches of participating students. So far as possible, judges should not know what school any contestant represents.
- (2) Sections. A section shall consist of no more than eight contestants. If nine or more students enter a division of storytelling, they shall be divided into sections according to official contest procedures. Winners from the preliminary rounds will compete in a final round.
- (3) Rankings, Ties and Points. Contestants shall be ranked as specified in official contest procedures. There can be no ties in this contest. Points are awarded as specified in Section 1408 (i).
- (4) Verification Period. If a panel of judges is used, a verification period shall be provided. Unofficial results should be posted. Coaches should be given no more than 15 minutes to verify that tabulation of rankings is correct. The rankings given by judges are not subject to question. Evaluation sheets may be viewed by contestants and coaches during the verification period and shall be returned to the contest director at the end of the verification period. For rounds with single judges, a 15-minute viewing period is recommended.
- (5) Official Results. The director shall announce the official results. Official results, once announced, are final.
- (6) Returning Materials. No confidential materials are used in this contest. Therefore, evaluation sheets may be returned to contestants at the conclusion of the contest.

Contest Administration Rules

- (1) Clear Room. Spectators and coaches not assigned a specific duty in administering the contest should be dismissed from the storytelling room before the story is read.
- (2) Speaker Order. Contestants may be assigned to sections and speaker order may be established prior to the day of the meet. If the contest director prefers, the contestants in each preliminary section may draw for speaker order just before the contest begins.
- (3) Telling the Story. Assemble contestants in a room separate from the room or rooms in which they will retell the story. The storyteller shall read the story only once to the contestants. Admit the first contestant in each preliminary section to the contest rooms to tell the story. When the first contestant has finished, admit the second one, and so on until all the contestants in each preliminary section have told their stories.
- (4) No Prompting. Contestants may not receive prompting of the story plot or details. Audiences are permitted to hear contestants tell their stories.

Judging/Scoring Rules

- (1) Briefing Judges. The judges should be instructed to evaluate all the contestants. If possible, judges should not hear the same students in both preliminary and final rounds. The judges shall not be permitted to hear the story as it is told to the contestants. Judges will be provided a list of key plot and character elements from the story.
- (2) Criteria. Judges will use an evaluation sheet provided by the League defining the criteria including, but not limited to, ability of the contestant to command attention, originality, facial expressions, vocal variety, characterization, eye contact, gestures, posture, articulation and enthusiasm. Contestants should include at least one key element of the story in their presentations, and an absence of at least one key story element in the presentation should be considered by the judge when ranking contestants. The judge's decisions on this matter shall be final.
- (3) Ranking. Ranks shall be determined through sixth place by the director. If a panel of judges is used, the contest director shall tabulate all judges' ranks to determine places. See "Instructions for Contest Directors of Speaking Events" for more information.

FAQs about Rules

May I have more information about the Contest Director and Storyteller's role?

- Contest Director. The contest director will be in charge of running the contest and resolving any problems that arise. The director may appoint an assistant director.
- Storyteller. The contest may also be administered by playing a recording of the test material prepared by the contest director in advance of the contest. The League does not provide this recording. The storyteller may select which story provided by the League office will be used for the preliminary round and which will be used for the final round. The storyteller may not be the coach of a participating student.
- Monitors (optional). The monitors may be a coach of a participating student. The monitor's duty is to make certain that contestants work quietly and independently before and after their turn.
